

Paddy Hansrote is a Registered Nurse with decades of experience as a dedicated patient advocate, Case Manager with specialized experience in medical billing. She has worked for large university hospitals, physicians, outpatient services and health insurance companies for purposes of analyzing medical bills, reviewing explanation of benefit forms and validation of healthcare charges. She is an expert in determining whether insurance companies have paid as much as it should have and if not, why not. Paddy also has experience with insurance denials and follow-up.

On a personal level, Paddy helped her oldest brother with denials related to his cancer therapy. She was successful in negotiating his bills to a manageable amount for her brother and family.