

Marlene Katz

Marlene Katz is a health and wellness coach, oncology and paramedical esthetician, and a facilitator of mindfulness movement meditation and stress management workshops. For several decades Marlene enjoyed a rewarding and successful career as an entrepreneur in the Spa and Healing Arts industry. Although Marlene recently sold her business, her passion for helping people remains steadfast. She continued her education and became a certified HeartMath Coach, an Interfaith Minister and officiant and a Functional Nutrition Consultant.

Marlene feels called to service and works to help people to improve their personal development and well-being. Apart from her career, Marlene is a community leader and has volunteered her time to organizations such as Dress for Success, Look Good/Feel Better, Cancer Cares, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the Peace Center of Bucks County and Circle of Miracles.

She currently attends Holos University pursuing a ThM/ThD in Theology and Subtle Energy Healing.
